America's First Man-in-Space Shot Postponed

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—Bad weather forced postponement today of America's first man-in-space shot and the chosen astronaut, Alan B. Shepard Jr., must wait at least 48 hours before he takes his rocket ride into the heavens and the history books.

Announcement that Shepard, lean muscular, 37-year-old Navy commander, had been chosen for the daring adventure came simultaneously with a report that unfavorable weather had spoiled a try this morning to launch him 115 miles into space aboard a Redstone rocket.

The backup astronaut, to take Shepard's place in the 3,000-pound Project Mercury space capsule if he is unable to go when the time comes, is John H. Glenn Jr., 30, a Marine lieutenant colonel.

Shepard had donned his pressure suit and sat in a hangar at the missile test center, sweating out the moment when he would be called to embark on the most thrilling voyage ever taken by an American.

Observers reported that he sat quietly, outwardly calm, and eager to be the man who would challenge the Soviet feat of blasting a man into the weightless void beyond the atmosphere of the earth.

In the coming 48 hours, physicians will keep Shepard under constant surveillance to see how he bears up under the mounting tension. A physical or psychological disorder would sideline him in favor of Glenn, who also will remain under observation in the Cape ready room.

If Shepard still is in good condition, mentally and physically, at the next scheduled launch time, he will remain the choice.

The final countdown began at 12:30 a.m. but prospects were never good. A heavy cloud cover over the Cape and down along the 290 miles of the missile range over which the Redstone was to fly brought frowns to the faces of Project Mercury scientists.

They needed clear visibility so that in the critical moments after the blastoff they could have good visual tracking and be ready to trigger Shepard's escape mechanism at the first hint of any trouble.

While scientists and physicians checked everything from the working parts of the rocket to the functioning of Shepard's heart, weather men looked hopefully for a break in the overcast.

But weather conditions did not change and at 7:40 a.m. the National Aeronautics and Space Administration announced that the shot was off until at least Thursday.

"No new launch date has been set," said the announcement, "but the minimum recycle time is 48 hours. The pilot will remain in the crew quarters in the NASA Mercury hangar here."

The rocket crew was 2 hours and 20 minutes away from its zero target when the decision to postpone was reached. The count had been halted several times in the hope that favorable weather would come.

Fuel had poured into the Red-

Top Advisers To President Meeting Again

WASHINGTON (AP)—The President confers again today with his top strategy advisers, the National Security Council. The meeting—the fifth in 11 days of international troubles—was to focus on a nuclear test ban.

In the next few days Kennedy and his aides are expected to decide whether there is any use trying to get the Soviet Union to go along with a test ban.

The deepening crisis in Laos brought out a reinforced security council meeting Monday, with Kennedy.

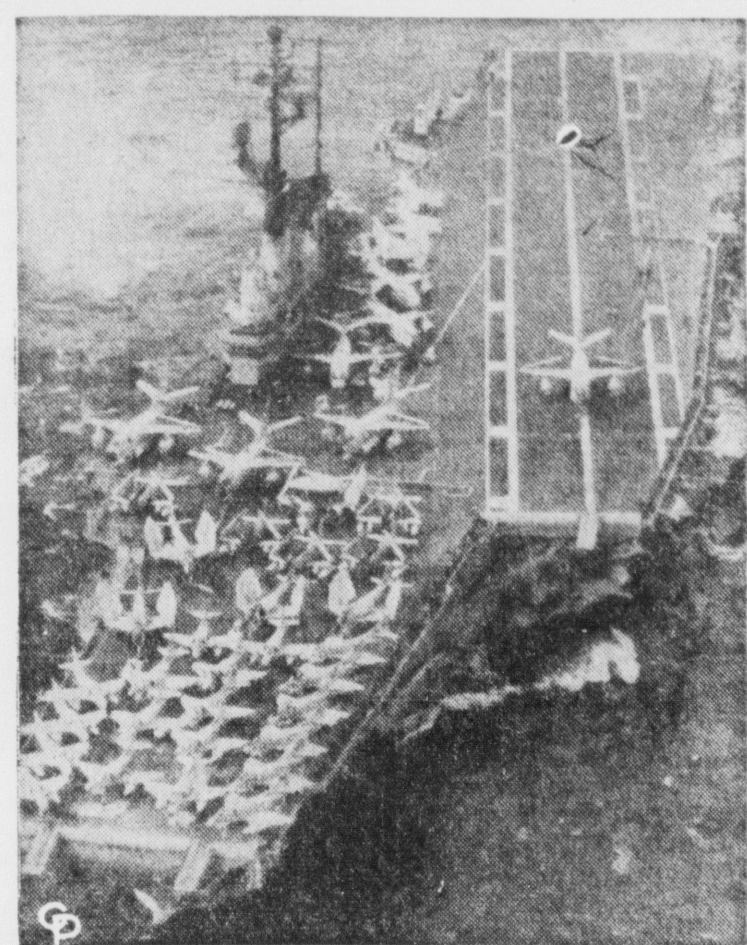

There was no announcement of any decisions that may have been reached. The full roster of who attended was withheld.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk and Secretary of Treasury Douglas Dillon left the White House by a side door, silent about what had gone on during the two-hour meeting.

Among the outside experts on hand were United Nations Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson, Dillon, Undersecretary of State Chester Bowles and the armed forces secretaries.

White House news secretary Pierre Salinger had said in advance that Kennedy and the NSC would discuss nuclear test talks as well as Laos.

But apparently Laos crowded the nuclear test ban out of the agenda. Salinger said later the item didn't come up.

PREPARED FOR WAR — IF IT COMES — Across the South China Sea from Laos during current SEATO war games, the USS Coral Sea sails with a deck-load of planes. The USS Coral Sea, part of an armada of sixty warships led by American and British carriers, took part in maneuvers geared for actual battle if the western powers decide on intervention to stop the Red drive in Laos.

Aerial Buccaneer Hijacks Airliner

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—An aerial pirate, armed with a steak knife and pistol and flaunting the name of an old-time buccaneer, hijacked an American airliner over Florida Monday and forced it to fly to Cuba.

While seven frightened passengers sat frozen to their seats, the self-proclaimed "El Pirata Cofresi" told the pilot that Rafael Trujillo, Dominican Republic strongman, had offered him $100,000 blood money to assassinate Fidel Castro.

But he had no intention of carrying out the mission, he said, because he considered Castro a "good guy" and wanted to "spill the beans" to him.

When the shanghaied, two-engine National Airlines plane landed at an airport near Havana, Castro militiamen hustled the man away to an uncertain fate. Then the plane was permitted to return to Florida.

The FBI and other government agencies pressed an investigation today to determine the real name of Cofresi, and exactly what he was up to.

"El Pirata Cofresi" means "The Pirate Cofresi," a notorious freebooter who sailed the Caribbean and West Indies area in the early 19th century. In buying his ticket here for the scheduled Miami-to-Key West run, the gunman had first given his name as "Mr. Cofresi, Elpir." Then he told the ticket clerk that the letters "ata" should be added to the "elpir."

The plane had just taken off from an intermediate stop at Marathon a Florida key, when the hijacker went into action.

A slim, unshaven man wearing dark sun glasses and a straw hat, he slipped into the cockpit and placed a knife at the throat of Capt. Francis X. Riley of Miami Shores. Then he pulled out a small, silver-plated pistol and ordered copilot J. T. Richardson of Jacksonville to leave the cockpit.

Taking the copilot's seat and turning off the radio, he said: "Let's go to Havana."

Pilot Riley related: "He kept pointing the gun at me the rest of the trip. He spoke perfect English and said he was an American citizen who fought in the Korean War—but he looked Cuban."

"I talked to him to see if his mind could be changed, but he was intent on getting to Cuba. He said Trujillo had offered him $100,000 to kill Castro."

"But he said he was going to spill the beans to Castro. Then he said, 'If I don't see Havana in 30 minutes, we'll all die.'"

As the plane passed over Key West, about 90 miles from Havana, the pilot zig-zagged as a signal of distress but nobody got the message.

Castro Ends Elections, To Boot Alien Clerics

Fighting Halted On Laos Front

Government, Rebel Spokesmen Parley

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP)—A truce meeting between a government officer and a Pathet Lao rebel major has brought a provisional end to fighting on the front 45 miles north of here, Gen. Phoumi Nosavan said today.

He reported that the two officers met Monday afternoon and fighting had halted "provisionally and theoretically" by 5 p.m.

Foreign Minister Tiao Sopsaisana said the Cabinet was encouraged to hope that the contact could lead to an over-all ceasefire, first step to ending civil war between the Communist-backed rebels and the government forces.

The government's truce emissary went to a point just north of Vang Khy, a town on the front. It was his second attempt to make contact with the rebels.

Top Laotian government and American military officials joined the meeting Monday night, one informed source said.

Prince Boun Oum's Cabinet met in Vientiane today to discuss the situation.

There was still grave doubt in many quarters in Vientiane that a cease-fire would result. Some observers suggested that the rebels have agreed to the battlefield meeting for propaganda purposes.

There was a feeling that the Pathet Lao might lay down conditions for a cease-fire that the Western-backed government would find unacceptable. One likely demand was for the immediate withdrawal of Americans who have been serving as military advisers to the royal regime.

CIA Chieftain To Testify on Cuban Fiasco

WASHINGTON (AP)—Allen W. Dulles, director of the Central Intelligence Agency, goes to Capitol Hill today to tell senators about the role the CIA played in the ill-fated Cuban rebel invasion.

Dulles agreed to appear at an afternoon closed-session of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee to talk not only about the Cuban situation but about CIA operations elsewhere around the globe.

The full Foreign Relations Committee stepped into the inquiry at the suggestion of Sen. Wayne Morse D-Ore. He is chairman of the Latin-American Affairs subcommittee which questioned Secretary of State Dean Rusk for three hours Monday.

Morse said he urged Sen. J. William Fulbright, D-Ark., Foreign Relations Committee chairman, to take over today so the questioning of Dulles can go "into the whole extent of CIA activities around the world."

Morse said Rusk told his group the United States has no plans for armed intervention in Cuba as an aftermath of the invasion fiasco.

Famous Canadian Philanthropist Dies

MERRICKVILLE, Ont. (AP)—Harry Falconer McLean, 78, Canadian construction man who gave away thousands of dollars in his lifetime, died Sunday. In a series of public giveaways as "Mr. X," in the 1940s, McLean hit the headlines in 1943 when he tossed $5,000 in $100 bills to war wounded in Toronto. He was born in Bismarck, N. D.

Early Vote Here Reported Light

Voting here in today's Primary Election was reported on the light side at noon, despite an abundant flow of sunshine which drenched the community.

Telephone checks with the city's 15 precincts showed a rather light count at most poll stations. Some precincts advised that the voting was about normal for a primary election, while others said the ballot count was slightly less than usual.

Most precinct workers said the tide of vote-casters is expected to pick up along toward evening following working hours.

The polls opened at 6:30 a. m. and early comers were greeted by welcome sunshine and a generally warming trend, weather ideal for any election day. The voting places are scheduled to remain open until 6:30 p. m.

AFTER THE doors are closed, precinct workers will start the demanding task of counting votes. Their results will be quickly forwarded to the Pickaway County Board of Elections for further tabulation.

Drawing the major share of interest today is the ballot for mayor. Five candidates, three Demo-

Church Schools To Be Grabbed

Socialist Setup Is Proclaimed

KEY WEST, Fla. (AP)—Prime Minister Fidel Castro, today proclaimed a Socialist state, ruled out elections, planned to take over parochial schools and to deport all foreign-born clerics.

Cuban masses filled Havana's Civic Plaza for a mammoth May Day demonstration and roared their assent when Castro insisted on Cuba's right to choose its own political and social future despite United States disapproval.

"We will not even discuss that subject," said Castro, whose audience was estimated by Havana television commentators at three million. The telecast was monitored in Key West, 90 miles from Havana.

The multitude screamed "No, no" when Castro asked, "Do you need elections?" He said Cuba will do without them.

Calling priests "the exploiters who came in the name of God," Castro announced that church schools will be nationalized in a few days and foreign-born clergymen will be expelled from Cuba.

Referring to several captured invaders identified as priests, and blaming the United States for fostering the ill-fated April 17 attack on his regime, Castro warned that U.S. cities are "in danger of becoming another Hiroshima."

He said churches will be allowed to remain open.

Castro said it was an historic May Day because workers who used to express their demands "to those who were completely deaf to their interests no longer have to submit to those trials."

"Now everything the government does or can do has one sole and exclusive purpose, which is to aid its class, its people."

The crowd broke into the Cuban revolutionary song, "We Shall Triumph."

Castro said, "If Mr. Kennedy does not like socialism, we don't like imperialism. We don't like capitalism." He said Cuba has as much right to set up a Socialist state 90 miles from the U.S. coast as the United States does to its form of government.

In Washington, the United States government said Castro's rule was more Communist than any other Iron Curtain country.

Under Castro's proclamation that Cuba is a "Socialist" state, a U.S. statement said Castro is setting the same term that the Soviets and others use to describe themselves. And furthermore Castro is going the Communists' "one better," the statement said, by putting an official end to elections in Cuba. The other Red Countries normally at least go through the form of holding elections even though the voters don't have a choice of candidates.

By using the term "socialist" (Continued on Page 2)

Senate Panel Gives Nod to Education Bill

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate Education Subcommittee today voted 8-1 to approve President Kennedy's $2,298,000,000 proposal for federal aid to public grade and high schools.

Only Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz., opposed the measure. Six Democrats and two Republicans voted to send it to the full Labor and Public Welfare Committee.

The latter group is expected to approve it either Thursday or early next week.

Democratic leaders hope to bring the legislation up on the Senate floor next week.

The bill would authorize federal grants to the states over three years to be used for school construction, teacher salaries, or both, at the option of the states. The grants would total $666 million the first year, $766 million the second, and $866 million the third.

Each state would receive a minimum of $15 per public school child each year. Low-income states would get larger per-pupil grants.

Ex-Nazis Face Israel Arrest

Eichmann Attorney Hopes for Testimony

JERUSALEM (AP)—Four former Nazis were named today by Adolf Eichmann's lawyer to testify on his behalf. Robert Servatius said they would show Eichmann was just a cog in the Nazi machine to exterminate the Jews and could make no decisions by himself.

Two of the witnesses Servatius named were convicted of war crimes after World War II. Another is in jail pending an investigation into his wartime activities. The fourth is a former Nazi foreign office official who the prosecution has announced would be arrested as a war crimes suspect if he sets foot in Israel.

Servatius said he would make application for additional defense witnesses later. He indicated that all the witnesses want to testify in Germany.

Servatius named these men: Former SS Maj. Gen. Franz A. Six, one-time department head in the Nazi Reich security office. He was sentenced to 20 years in prison at the Nuremberg war crimes trials for his role in the "Einsatzgruppen"—extermination commandos—but the sentence was later commuted. He is free in West Germany.

Dr. Max Merten, former German military governor in Salonika, Greece, who was convicted by a Greek court and sentenced to 20 years in prison. The sentence was commuted shortly after his conviction. He now is a lawyer in West Berlin.

Former SS Maj. Hermann Krumey, a deputy of Eichmann in Nazi-occupied Hungary. Krumey now is under arrest in Frankfurt pending an investigation into Auschwitz Concentration Camp atrocities.

Eberhard von Thadden, Jewish affairs adviser to the Nazi foreign office. An investigation into Von Thadden's case was ordered suspended by a Cologne court for insufficient evidence.

Israeli Atty. Gen. Gideon Hausner immediately said that all four are regarded as offenders under the Israeli war crimes law and would be arrested if they come to Israel.

Yard of Red Carpet Delays Queen Liz

NAPLES, Italy (AP)—Arrival of Queen Elizabeth II on the Italian mainland was delayed by a yard of red carpet today.

The red carpet had been stretched across the pier to where officials had calculated the gangway of the royal yacht Britannia would come down.

The gangway fell one yard short. The carpet could not be moved because it had been nailed down.

Aides raced to the pier with a one-yard piece of carpet to fill the gap.

Ladies, You Still Must Remove Your High Hats

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Ohio House of Representatives has HAT it.

For months now, there's been a move afoot in the House to repeal a law dating back to horse and buggy days. The law requires theater patrons to remove view-obstructing hats.

It obviously was directed against ladies of the day who wore highheeled or similarly concocted hats, much to the annoyance of male theater patrons. Rep. Nolan W. Carson, R-Hamilton, told the House he sponsored the repealer only to get rid of an outdated law.

But the House apparently didn't think the law was that outdated. After all, some of the millinery worn by ladies today . . . Well, keeping in mind that "Hell hath no fury" suffice it to say that women still wear hats.

Anyway, the repeal measure came up for a vote Monday. But before it did, Rep. Lloyd George Kerns, R-Union, arose to put in a word for "some of the little fellows running around here, like me and Rep. A. G. Lancine."

Lancine, D-Belmont, and Kerns both stand only 5 feet 2.

Whatever words Kerns "put in," it undoubtedly made an impression on many House members.

For the vote was 61-57, nine short of the 70 needed to repeal the anti-hat law.

This means the ladies will still have to doff their view-obstructing hats in theaters.

But in the words of Rep. Maurice C. Brown, D-Lorain, a theater business manager, the problem of movie house operators is not oversized hats on women's heads. He told the House it's the refusal of "these young beatnik fellows" to take off their hats.

The repeal measure, incidentally, was sent originally to the House Mines and Natural Resources Committee for study. The reason that committee got assigned the job was that it had no other bills before it.

Or maybe it was due to the comment of Rep. Kenneth A. Robinson, R-Marion.

Said he: "Don't tell me women's hats are not a natural resource."

crats and two Republicans.
Democrats seeking mayor nominations today for the General Election in November are George E. Curtain, Anna M. Hoffman and Clark Stevens.

Republicans seeking the post are Richard W. Penn and Robert E. Ferguson.

Five candidates on the ballot with no opposition and the offices they are seeking are: Democrat Harold Clifton, City Council President; Everett Stocklen, City Treasurer; Kenneth Robbins, City Solicitor; Charles Kirkpatrick, First Ward Councilman; and John Jenkins, Second Ward Councilman.

Five candidates are on the ballot for Councilmen-at-Large. They are Joseph Bell, Robert S. Smith, Dudley Carpenter, David Crawford and Lowell Ferguson.

FIVE office seekers are running for the Fourth Ward Council seat. They are Robert M. Good, Robert O. Callahan, Boyd Horn, Harold R. Nagel and Franklin D. Jones.

Here is the early count:
Precinct 1-C was the busiest voting place this morning with a total of 52 persons casting their vote by noon. Precinct 1-C is the First Methodist Church, area.

Precinct 1-E, Forest Cemetery office, reported the least amount of voters at noon with a total of 16.

Other noon totals include: 1-A, Ford Garage, 40; 1-B, VFW Lodge office, 39; 1-C, First Methodist Church, 52; 1-D, Griffith Furniture Store, 31; 1-E, Forest Cemetery, 16; 1-F, Ford Garage, 16; 1-G, Atwater School, 41;

2-A, Fire Department, 44; 2-B, Mount St. School, 38; 3-A County Engineer's office, 38; 3-B, State Highway Patrol office, 36; 3-C, no report; 4-B, city water works garage, 31; 4-C, South Court St. School, 49; and 4-D, Walnut St. School, 24.

Announcement of the postponement, heard on car radios, brought a leldown to the thousands who had gone to the beaches outside the missile test center, hoping to be on hand for the great moment when one of their own countrymen would soar aloft on the path that will lead eventually to the moon and perhaps beyond.

While a brief suborbital flight by Shepard would not equal the feat of the Soviet's Yuri A. Gagarin, who made an orbit of the earth, it would be a major step toward overtaking the huge space lead built up by the early starting Soviets.

The U.S. timetable calls for a man in orbit later this year, in a capsule to be hurled aloft by an Atlas, a much more powerful missile than the Redstone.

But the Redstone flight will make heavy demands on the mental and physical strength of a man. It will subject him to crushing pressures reaching up to 11 times gravity on the return to earth and will give him five minutes of the weird feeling of weightlessness. It will determine his reaction to speeds up to 5,000 miles an hour in the cramped environment of the capsule.

A bell-shaped device nine feet tall and six feet across its rounded base is the space ship, and its interior is as familiar to the even American astronauts as their living rooms. They have had numerous practice runs in its close quarters and have memorized its maze of lights, dials and switches.

Toughened by hour in low pressure chambers, wind tunnels, whirling centrifuges, hot and cold rooms, and supersonic jets, Shepard was reported today to be in superb condition for eventual flight.

When the time comes, he will know that every precaution has been taken to minimize the dangers, but that the first step into space can never be taken without some risk to his life.

to describe Cuba under his rule, Castro is going further than all the other Red countries because only the Soviet Union and Czechoslovakia term themselves "Socialist Republics" in this stage of their avowed drive towards a Communist society.

Since even Communist China does not consider itself to have reached the "Socialist" stage yet, the U.S. statement said, "it would therefore appear that Castro considers Cuba further along the Communist road than some other countries in the bloc."

By JACK BEST
Canadian Press Correspondent
Fidel Castro announced early today that foreign Roman Catholic priests are to be expelled from Cuba and that Catholic and other private schools will be taken over by revolutionary government.

Only those priests who obtain express permission and are not considered to be counterrevolutionary will be allowed to stay, Castro said in an address to a May Day rally.

The speech listed 3 1/2 hours and was delivered in Havana's Plaza de la Republica where Castro had spent 14 hours viewing the mammoth parade.

The government's decision to throw out foreign priests will cripple the Catholic Church here. Only about one-third of the country's 750 priests are Cuban-born. A high percentage are Spanish. Forty are from Canada, members of the Foreign Missions Society of Montreal.

As for schools to be taken over, Castro said only those directors who had a "counterrevolutionary attitude" will be indemnified.

The move culminates a long period of increasingly hostile relations between Castro's government and the Catholic Church.

Castro lumped President Kennedy with Hitler and Mussolini as political leaders who "try to impose their form of government on other peoples."

This Is What District Vets Want To Know

Questions of interest to ex-service men should be given to Pickaway County Veterans Service Officer, James Shea. His office is in the basement of the Courthouse.

Q — What are "day centers" that I hear the VA is operating now?

A — "Day Centers" are newer developments in psychiatric care. Patients, often those who have been long hospitalized, spend their time in various therapeutic activities at the centers and return home at night. The centers are located at VA outpatient clinics, and volunteers from the community play an important part in helping with the activities. To my knowledge there are no "Day Centers" in this area.

Q — In checking over my discharge, I find that there is a bad error on it. Can the VA straighten this out for me?

A — No, the VA cannot straighten out errors on your discharge. This is done directly with the service concerned — Army, Navy, Air Force, Marine Corps or Coast Guard.

Q — I am the widow of a World War II veteran. I am receiving death pension for myself and two children. I realize that if I remarry, that I am no longer eligible for this pension, but would the children still be eligible?

A — If you remarry, your children will remain eligible in their own right until age 18, or if in school, until age 21, unless of course, they should marry earlier.

Q — I am a veteran of World War I. I did not file a claim for disability compensation when discharged because I felt my service incurred disability and insignificant and it was not bothering me. Now it does bother me, but a man here in Circleville told me that there is a "one year from discharge deadline" for filing a claim. Is that true?

A — That is not true and I cannot understand why anyone would make such a statement to you. There is no deadline for filing a claim for disability compensation. If you file within one year following your discharge, your payments will be made retroactive to the date of the discharge. If you file after one year, payments are effective from the date you file.

Q — What is an "Invalid bed lift" which I understand the VA gives to certain veterans?

A — The invalid bed lift is a mechanical device by which a helpless person is lifted in or out of a bed, a vehicle or a bathtub. A veteran who qualifies for total disability and who is also receiving increased benefits for need of special aid and attendance may be issued a mechanical bed lift if it is necessary for his care.

Supreme Court OKs Vote Record Grab

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court today refused to review—and thus let stand—lower court rulings that states must produce voting records on demand of the U.S. attorney general.

The lower court decisions were on the constitutionality of sections of the civil rights law of 1960.

Validity of the sections was questioned by MacDonald Gallion, Alabama attorney general, and by the Montgomery County Ala., Board of Registrars.

The Alabama officials resisted demands that voting records be opened up for inspection by federal agents, who sought evidence of discrimination against Negroes.

Alleghany Power Struggle Is Postponed for Week

BALTIMORE (AP) — Stockholders of Alleghany Corp., subject of a power struggle for control, Monday met 90 minutes and recessed their annual meeting until next Monday without deciding a contest to depose Allan P. Kirby as chairman.

Opposing forces agreed to keep open voting until 9 a.m. Tuesday, delaying the start of a painstaking count that will decide whether

DiSalle Calls Highway Deal Extravagant

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Gov. Michael V. DiSalle asserted Monday that interest charges would be tacked onto highway construction bonds in the move to appropriate extra money to local governments for road and street work.

He termed the move "extravagant."

The Sinking Fund Commission has approved sale of another $32 million in road construction bonds next May 24, with a provision that payment on the principle would be delayed more than a year.

William Bright, comptroller in the office of State Treasurer Joseph T. Ferguson estimated that postponement in the bond maturity date from 10 years to about 11½ years would cost additional $492,000 in interest charges.

DiSalle told newsmen the move was made while he was on a trip to Washington. He linked the action to a fight in the Republican controlled legislature over House Bill 49.

The measure, on his desk for an expected veto this week, would make an extra $15 million available to counties, municipalities and townships from auto tag license fees.

How Weather Looks Today

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Official Weather Bureau summary of Ohio's weather outlook:

Generally fair, dry and unseasonable cool weather moved into Ohio Monday night with some cloudiness at times in the south-east, and in the north along Lake Erie.

The center of the cool air mass was over the central plains early this morning, and moderation in temperatures is not expected until Wednesday afternoon when southerly winds will return to the state.

Freezing temperatures are likely again tonight for portions of the north, with possible frost over the remaining areas. Little cloudiness is expected for the next 30 hours, with considerable sunshine likely for the daylight hours.

This morning, a low of 32 in Columbus broke the previous record low for this date. The previous record was 33 in 1911. Other early morning temperatures included Cincinnati 33, Marietta 37, Toledo 30 and Zanesville 1.

Van Wert Man Named To Parkway Board

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Gov. Michael V. DiSalle appointed Eugene C. Feigert, Van Wert insurance man, as a member of the Anthony Wayne Parkway Board Monday. His term will expire in 1967.

er Kirby stays on or surrenders control to dissident stockholders led by Texas financier John D. Murchison.

The session was conducted in basic harmony despite disorder by a pair of minority share owners who were forcibly ejected after a raucous demonstration against the present management of the $6.7 billion corporation.

Management opened the meeting with a report by Charles T. Ireland Jr., Alleghany president, that said the holding company was on the threshold of new prosperity.

The contest was without parallel in American history, overshadowing the duels of railroad and oil barons of a half century ago.

The principals, Alleghany Chairman Allan P. Kirby and Texas financier John D. Murchison, his challenger, both professed optimism. Kirby inherited a Woolworth 5-and-10 cent store fortune; Murchison has a fortune built on oil.

But Murchison and close allies of Kirby, agreed that it might take two weeks of painstaking scrutiny of stockholder votes to determine the outcome of the annual meeting of shareholders.

Neither side claimed a majority of the 9,844,970 common shares eligible to be voted. The Kirby group is on record as owning outright about 3,300,000, the Murchison group 2,850,000.

Each side also held sizeable batches of proxies from independent stockholders gathered in seven weeks of intensive, nationwide solicitation.

Every single proxy and ballot cast by an estimated 17,000 shareholders was subject, in alphabetical order, to minute inspection and possible challenge.

At stake was control of a holding company which, although it has only 10 persons including secretaries on its payroll, governs the destiny of the $2.5-billion New York Central Railroad and Investors Diversified Services, $3.7-billion investment company complex.

IDS managers pooled investments of more than one million persons.

Alleghany also has multimillion-dollar holdings in the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad and Missouri Pacific Railroad and in Trans-America Corp., an insurance holding company.

Ohio Ready To Lay Out U.S. Road Cash

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—All of the federal money promised to Ohio for highway work in this fiscal year should be committed to contractors by the end of June, Highway Director Everett S. Preston says.

By doing so, Preston thinks that Ohio's will be the first highway department in any state to convert all the promised federal dollars into contracts in the same book-keeping year in which they were pledged.

The state won't actually get the cash from Washington until later on, so it amounts to repayment for money Ohio will pay contractors from its own pocket.

Preston also is confident Ohio's Highway Department will reach—and probably exceed — another goal, that of a $300 million-a-year construction program. The total value of contracts let since the fiscal year began July 1, 1960, stands at about $275 million, and there are four more bid-opening sessions in May and June.

Since Jan. 1, the department has let contracts with a total value equal to approximately $400,000 a day.

'Music Man' Sets Up Shop To Put Out Movie Version

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Prof. Harold Hill has set up shop out Burbank way, and the trombones and cornets are selling at a fast clip.

Prof. Hill also is known to millions as Robert Preston, and the two seem inseparable. Preston is now hard at work doing the film version of "Music Man," which he created on Broadway. Strange, he was no show-in to make the movie.

"I'm sure some of the studio minds would have preferred to cast Fabian in the role," commented one wry observer.

Happily, wiser heads prevailed, they being those of "Music Man's" creator, Meredith Willson, and director of the stage and screen versions Morton DaCosta. Preston is among those who believes they made a right decision.

"If you're going to do the film version of 'Music Man,' you get the best Harold Hill. At this late date, there's nobody who can do it better than I can. The role is a part of me, and I'm a part of the role. You can't pick that up overnight."

Warner Brothers is going all-out to make "Music Man" the best. The bill for production will reportedly come to $5 million, including a cool million for the rights. Filming started early this month and will continue through August.

"That's a long schedule, but I've had longer," Preston remarked. "I used to work on the De Mille pictures at Paramount. I was under contract and they weren't paying me much. So they'd send me up to Utah or someplace with the second unit to shoot the action stuff."

"I'd be up there two or three months before coming back to join the better-paid actors in shooting the main part of the picture."

It arrived during part of National Book Week when the library agrees to take back any book on a no-questions, no-fines basis.

Rhee's Spokesman Gets 2-Year Term

SEOUL, South Korea (AP)—Chun Sung-chun, a spokesman for the Syngman Rhee regime, was sentenced today to two years in prison for his role in the rigged presidential election in March of 1960.

The prosecution had demanded a five-year term.

Chun was charged with using government funds to publish a campaign biography of Rhee's running mate, Lee Ki-poong.

The court said Chun's role in shutting down a leading opposition daily, the Kyunghyang Shinmoon, in the last days of Rhee's rule was not taken into account in passing the judgment.

Police said three persons were arrested for allegedly plotting violent overthrow of the government, but called their plan a daydream.

Russians Are Expert Sitters

It appears the West, tiring at long last of Soviet intransigence, is preparing to pack its bags and leave the nuclear test-ban talks at Geneva. An end to the talks would be a blow to disarmament "hopes," but the break may be necessary.

The Soviets have made no worthwhile concessions toward agreement on inspections and controls, key to the Western proposals. They apparently hope to maintain the no-test agreement by simply outstitching the Western negotiators.

While the Russians, with their infinite patience, have stalled at Geneva, pressure for resumption of tests has built up in the United States. Some arms experts insist that Uncle Sam must develop more advanced nuclear weapons, and that testing is essential. Congress is beginning to chafe at our self-imposed ban.

If no progress is possible in the Geneva talks, there is little reason for the U. S. to continue tying its own hands. Of course, if Washington withdraws from the talks and orders a resumption of testing, a storm of protest will be whipped up, with the communists fanning it as well as they know how.

Against that eventuality must be weighed the dangers of a continued, unenforced test halt, in which the communists could be testing weapons secretly.

The best hope, and a thin one, is that the Western threat to end the talks may force the Russians into a more compromising mood, and that there would then be some reason to continue seeking agreement into the future, time without end.

By only the naive will count on it.

Remarks To Irk Hotel Clerks

NEW YORK (AP)—Remarks a hotel desk clerk gets tired of hearing:

"But I tell you my name really is John Smith!"

"This is room 812. There is a party going on in the room next door. Will you please ask them to be more quiet?"

"Whaddaya mean you're all filled up, and I need a reservation? What am I—an Indian?"

"Now, don't look so flustered when you register, Joe. Otherwise—giggle, giggle—He'll be sure to recognize we're on our honeymoon."

"Hello, hello! You told me you'd give me a room with one of those new hideaway beds. Well, you sure did, I give up. Where is the bed?"

"Why is it that every time I go to a hotel that says it has single rooms from $8 to $16, the only ones empty are the $16 ones? Who lives in the $8 room— you?"

"This is room 812 again. That party in 814 is getting wilder. They are running up and down the halls now barefooted. What are you going to do about it?"

"My bill comes to $11.65. Can you cash my personal check for $200? I'll need some pocket money to get out of town. No, I've never stayed here before."

"I understand you don't charge for children under 12. Well, we've got six of them outside in the car, and they're getting pretty sleepy, so we'll need a place right away. We'll also need some hot milk, some—oh, by the way, can you also put up our dog overnight? He's very quiet."

"This is room 812, and this is my last warning. Either that racket next door in 814 stops in three minutes, or I call the police."

Dinner Chit Chat Will Vary

A dinner party is amusing when the conversation is exciting or brilliant or gay. When it gets heavy, it can be a bore, particularly when one has to make a point with emphasis of voice and gesture. Might just as well stay home and listen to cannibal instructions.

Always at dinners, the discussions are topical and everybody seems to be well-informed on all topics, even if the preparation is neither knowledgeable nor meaningful. Keep it up, so that there is no deadly lull in the conversation. Suppose, you do not know what they are talking about — it does not matter as long as what you say is currently fashionable.

At this moment, the popular subjects are Cuba, Eichmann, Caroline Kennedy and the John Birch Society.

As for Cuba, the argument these days is that we have to go it alone but we don't want war. How do you go it alone without war — that is a very bad question to ask. It is fashionable to say that we should go it alone without war. Next month, war may not be currently comfortable. Then those who opposed war will be in favor of war, provided that their men folks will be let off. It is startling to meet so many young men today who should have been in World War II but were not.

Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

SAMUEL HOPKINS ADAMS, always willing to try anything once, consented to attend a nudist party one Fourth of July afternoon. Describing the experience to friends in Auburn that evening, Sam said, "Those folks didn't do things by halves. Even the butler who opened the door for me was nude."

"If he was nude, how did you know he was the butler?" asked Mr. Adams' literal-minded publisher.

"Well," said Mr. Adams, "it certainly was not the maid!"

Lynn Farol reports that a crowded elevator was about to ascend the other afternoon when a happy drunk shouldered his way into it. As the car arose, he faced his fellow riders and announced cheerfully, "I'll bet all of you are wondering why I called this meeting..."

A chronic bad check passer suffered his greatest indignity recently. He received a call from his Red Cross blood bank. It seems his blood bounced.

and orders a resumption of testing, a storm of protest will be whipped up, with the communists fanning it as well as they know how.

Against that eventuality must be weighed the dangers of a continued, unenforced test halt, in which the communists could be testing weapons secretly.

The best hope, and a thin one, is that the Western threat to end the talks may force the Russians into a more compromising mood, and that there would then be some reason to continue seeking agreement into the future, time without end.

By only the naive will count on it.

way seems to be an excuse for anything. A friend argued against that. He insists that obedience in war time is not a moral equivalent for anything. He does not believe that anyone can order him to kill. He will not kill. That, of course, is very noble and genteel except it gives all the advantages to him who is willing to kill.

The impudent can control the world unless someone stops them. Murder, Inc. might have controlled New York and chosen its Mayor — if nobody had electrocuted Lepke. It is very sweet to say "I shall not kill," but if Soviet Russia makes war on us those who are not for us are against us.

And so, the evening progresses until those who are still permitted to smoke weary of it all and wink to their spouses to go home. It has been pleasant enough to listen to the inexpert orator about all sorts of diets and one sometimes wonders if geography is not something that still needs to be studied in school so that one knows where Mali is.

Before television, talk had to be entertaining; otherwise one went to sleep. Today, the easiest way to avoid boredom is the turn on television — at least, you can see a murder or a war picture or a missile being hurled into the air.

Television spoiled the Eichmann case as a conversation piece. Perry Mason conducts a much more interesting trial and his witnesses look alive. Eichmann is given no make-up and he already looks half dead.

Inside You and Yours

By BURTON H. FERN, D.D.
Have you turned down cheap — possibly free — insurance?

Because so many low income families are uninsured against polio, paralysis is striking those who can least afford it!

Polio is an intestinal infection. The virus builds a strong striking force inside dark intestinal crevices until D-day, when the germs push through into the blood stream.

Unless antibodies wipe out these invaders, the viruses reach the brain and spinal cord where they damage and kill special nerve cells. Strong muscles become limp and paralyzed.

Paralysis fades wherever damaged nerve cells recover. But limbs lie still and silent once their nerve cells are killed.

Nothing can bring back dead nerve cells. And nothing can stop polio's paralysis once the virus invades the nervous system.

A handful of polio victims in your neighborhood may mean a serious epidemic. For every polio victim, 100 others suffer mild, unrecognized polio. You can catch the virus from any of these "polio sufferers."

Salk vaccine doesn't prevent polio. It fills your blood with antibodies to kill invading polio viruses before they can reach nerve cells and paralyze you.

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Bands and choruses from 15 of the state's largest high schools won 25 superior ratings in the competition festival sponsored by the Ohio Music Educational Association at Ohio State University Saturday.

Columbus North was the only school in the class A-1 category (1201 or more students in the top four grades) to be rated superior in all four categories, band and the three choruses-mixed, boys and girls.

All three choruses from Mansfield, Dayton Colonel White and Massillon were rated superior.

Approximately 3,000 boys and girls made up the 17 bands and 24 choruses in the festival. They competed against a standard of excellence rather than against each other. Each of the 41 units in the state finals had won superior ratings in previous district competition.

Here is a complete list of Class A-1 high schools that earned superior ratings in one or two categories at the OSU event:

Bands — Columbus Lyndon McKinley, Carrollton, Fremont Ross, Parma, Cleveland Heights, Cuyahoga Falls and Conneaut.

Mixed Choruses — Dayton Rosevelt, Belmont, Euclid and Akron Buchtel.

Boys Choruses — Dayton Rosevelt.

State finals in the other five high school classifications were held simultaneously in other parts of the state.

The virus still grows inside the intestine and so vaccinated victims can still spread polio through your neighborhood!

Expectant mothers are especially vulnerable to paralysis. So are children who recently left their tonsils and adenoids in operating rooms. The whole family needs polio protection.

Soon you'll be able to choose either regular Salk shots or a new, more powerful vaccine that supplies the same protection with fewer needles.

And with oral vaccine you won't need any needlework at all. Because tamed polio viruses spread just like wild ones, many citizens who don't take the trouble to be vaccinated receive this insurance anyway.

But why be only half safe? Be completely sure! Let polio vaccine give you up to 90 per cent protection.

Avoid chills, eat well and get plenty of rest for that other 10 per cent. Then you should have guaranteed insurance against polio's paralysis!

GOP Solon Urges Party Be Moderate

DELAWARE, Ohio (AP)—The Republican party was told by one of its House members yesterday that moderation is the only way out of its political dilemma.

Rep. Fred Schwengel, R-Iowa, in a sharply worded prepared speech, said this involves not a face lifting but a return to basic Republican origins.

"While this process of Republican reawakening is going on, I suggest that the reactionary right shut itself into outer darkness and discreet silence," Schwengel said, "... and that the me-too imitators of the New Deal, type Fair Deal and the New Frontier confine themselves in the dismal dungeons of the politically dead."

Schwengel spoke at the annual Republican Day program at Ohio Wesleyan University.

Schwengel, spelling out his own political philosophy as a Republican moderate, said it was one of the greatest propaganda crimes of this century that the GOP was malingering and allowed itself to be malingering as not the party of the people.

Schwengel said some lustier shouting from the moderates could have put Richard M. Nixon, "an excellent candidate and a competent, moderate," in the White House.

Supreme Court Decision Fails To Protect Rail Merger Jobs

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Supreme Court has decided the Interstate Commerce Act does not require that employees of merged railroads must be continued in active employment status.

Chief Justice Warren delivered the 8-1 decision. Justice Douglas wrote a dissenting opinion.

The court ruled on an appeal by the Brotherhood of Maintenance of Way Employees and the Railway Labor Executives' Association. The organizations asked better job protection for workers affected by the 1960 merger of the Erie and Lackawanna railroads.

The Interstate Commerce Act says that as a result of railroad mergers no employees may be placed "in a worse position with respect to their employment" for four years from the date of the Interstate Commerce Commission's merger order. For those who worked for a railroad less than four years, the protective period would equal the time of their service before the merger.

Counsel for the labor organizations told the Supreme Court that provisions fixed by ICC to protect workers in the Erie-Lackawanna merger violated the act. The argument was that employees could be dismissed with financial compensation because of the merger instead of being given comparable jobs.

Railway labor sought conditions that would prevent dismissal of any employee because of the merger, allowing reduction of working forces only by natural attrition, such as deaths, retirements and resignations.

Solicitor General Archibald Cox and counsel for the Erie-Lackawanna supported the ICC order. Cox described the worker protection provisions as the most elaborate ever known in and out of the railroad industry.

The ICC merger order included a guaranteed wage for four years to those dismissed, no salary loss for four years to those transferred to other jobs, and retention by all affected employees of pension, health and other fringe benefits.

The Erie and Lackawanna merged last October, but all jobs have been frozen pending outcome of the litigation.

A three-judge U.S. District Court in Detroit rejected claims of the two employee organizations which then appealed to the Supreme Court.

The high court was told the merger would result in elimination of 1982 jobs and transfer of 2,159 others. The merged railroad operates 2,961 miles of track in New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana and Illinois.

Probe of Ohio Utility Rates Appears Fading

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Rules Committee of the Ohio House apparently will decide—possibly today—that there is no reason to investigate the rate requests of utility companies.

But the committee may ask Rep. Richard M. Christiansen, D-Richland, to reply to two questions he refused to answer Monday night in an unusual public meeting of the almost sacrosanct body headed by Speaker Roger Cloud, R-Logan. The hearing lasted three hours.

First of all, Christiansen declined to tell the committee how he came into possession of a letter written to a New York brokerage firm last November by George B. Quatman of Lima, president of Ohio Telephone Services, Inc., which controls at least 16 independent telephone firms.

Second he refused to say whether he had discussed the Quatman letter with Democratic Gov. Michael V. DiSalle in advance of his request for a House investigation. Speaker Cloud told newsmen it is a matter for the Rules Com-

3 Laws Are Signed By DiSalle; Special Message Scheduled

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Gov. Michael V. DiSalle today signed into law three more enactments by the legislature and said he would have a special message on campaign expenditures next Wednesday.

The message will include figures compiled statewide on expense by both parties in last year's election campaign.

The governor has called for a limit on such expenditures.

Signed was an act authorizing public school principals to suspend pupils for a maximum of 10 days. At present only school superintendents or executive heads of local school districts can make suspensions.

The other bills signed provide for return to counties money remaining in disbanded conservancy districts, and revises present laws dealing with out-of-state building and loan associations doing business in Ohio.

Franklin Man Faces Term for Slaying Dad

LEBANON, Ohio (AP) — James Russell Spies, 26, of nearby Franklin faces a 1-to-20 year term in Mansfield Reformatory in the Christmas Eve shooting death of his father, Judge Warren Young set the penalty in Common Pleas Court Monday after noting Spies had been a model jail prisoner. Spies was convicted last week of first-degree manslaughter in the death of his father after an argu-mittee to decide whether Christiansen should be required to answer the questions. The first question was asked by Rep. Kenneth Robinson, R-Marion, and the second by House Majority Leader Robert Taft Jr., R-Hamilton.

The whole strange affair centered around the Quatman letter which his son, Judge Joseph Quatman, told the committee was written to counteract a report by a New York investment counseling company cautioning prospective investors against Ohio utility securities.

The unusual hearing which played to a packed committee room was by far the highlight of the opening day of the 18th work week of the 104th General Assembly.

Other legislative activities paled into insignificance.

The Quatman letter said flatly that utility companies, in the light of recent decisions by the Utilities Commission, "inflate" their rate requests in the expectation that they will be "pulled down" by the commission.

Republican "defense" attorneys led by Robinson attempted throughout the hearing to hang a political tag on Christiansen's request for a full-scale House investigation.

"Have you enjoyed the publicity occasioned by this resolution?" Robinson asked the Mansfield freshman lawmaker.

"Not particularly," retorted Christiansen.

The former Mansfield city solicitor got some of his roughest handling from Taft and Rep. Archer Reilly, R - Franklin, one of Christiansen's former law professors.

After a half-dozen repetitions of the question from Taft, Christiansen conceded he had no evidence Quatman had any authority to speak for all the public utilities in Ohio.

Reilly, asserting he spoke as a friend rather than as a political adversary and as a former instructor, said to Christiansen:

"I am at a loss as to what you expect to accomplish by offering this resolution; what practical accomplishments could be there aside from politics? The letter in dictates one man's opinion—and it doesn't prove very much."

Christiansen produced one of the few laughs of the supercharged session when he observed:

"I tend to be more bipartisan in my approach when I am in the minority."

Joseph Quatman told the committee he was authorized to speak for his father, George Quatman. He said the letter in question was not intended for public consumption.

"It was personal correspondence for which we have no apology and no shame."

"We have here an attempt to misconstrue the letter for the benefit of those who wish to misconstrue it."

Reapportionment Arguments Sought

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Supreme Court today called for new argument next fall on an appeal by a group of Tennessee voters who seek to compel a reapportioning of state legislative districts.

The high tribunal heard arguments on the appeal on April 9 and 20.

In a brief order today the court called for reargument on Oct. 9 which will be the second Monday of its 1961-62 term.

The case has implications extending to all states.

During the argument, counsel for the Tennessee voters told the high tribunal it had the duty to make certain that federal tribunals end discrimination against city electors that results from rural domination of state legislatures.

One of the few remaining places where bald eagles persist in numbers is Everglades National Park in Florida.

The World Today

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy faces a tormented choice in Laos. Act to save it from the Communist-led guerrillas? Or let it go down the drain?

If the United States intervenes, Kennedy can't possibly predict the outcome. It would be a brush-fire war which could become a big one, with Red China moving in.

If nothing is done, Laos is surely lost. But that's not all. If the United States holds back, it will be encouragement to the Reds to grab for the rest of Southeast Asia.

This country has an alliance to protect the area—SEATO, the Southeast Asia Treaty Organization—with seven other countries.

They are Britain, France, the Philippines, Thailand, Pakistan, Australia and New Zealand.

There is no sign of enthusiasm in this country for getting American men involved in war on the continent of Asia.

But if Americans don't want to go in, the United States can hardly expect the British, French, Australians, New Zealanders or the people of the Philippines to send in men.

Not one of them is on the continent of Asia.

Only two of the eight allies are: Pakistan, which is separated from Laos by Burma and Thailand, which is Laos' next-door neighbor.

Yet, if the alliance fails to act, it is weakened and American prestige suffers in all Southeast Asia.

If Laos goes to the Communists, because of the failure of SEATO to act, the will of Thailand to resist Communist pressure is diminished.

It would probably be pressured fast.

Thailand is on one side of Laos. On the other is South Viet Nam where Communist guerrillas from the north already have the country wobbly.

Kennedy himself is skeptical South Viet Nam can be saved. Since the Communists think time is on their side, they don't have to smash Thailand and South Viet Nam instantly. A bit at a time is good enough.

Two other Laotian neighbors are already neutralist, Cambodia and Burma. The Communists can by-pass them, pick them off later.

What makes Kennedy's position doubly difficult is that he talked tough about Laos. That was on March 23.

He warned that unless the Red-led guerrillas agreed to a cease-fire, the United States would have to act. He didn't say how.

But the guerrillas, supplied by Russia, ignored the warning, kept pushing, knocked off more pieces of Laos, have not agreed to a cease-fire.

Since Russia is backing them, the lack of a cease-fire can be considered a Russian decision to stall to give the guerrillas more time to take more of Laos.

But the stalling does more. It's costing Premier Khrushchev comparatively little to test Kennedy's determination.

Since more than a month has passed since the Kennedy warning, his failure to act may be interpreted by Khrushchev as weakness or indecision.

Kennedy has done a lot of talking, with his aides, his security council, with former Presidents Eisenhower and Hoover and with Gen. Douglas MacArthur.

Time is running out on him in Laos. Shortly he must decide to act or stand still.

If he stands still, and this is something he has to consider, the next time he talks tough to the Russians may give him the ha-ha.

FCC To Keep Eye On More TV Ads

WASHINGTON (AP) — Chairman Newton N. Minow of the Federal Communications Commission today expressed hope that the TV networks' plan for longer identification breaks by stations will not increase the number of local spot commercials during the breaks.

If this occurs, Minow said, he would certainly want FCC to do something about it.

His comment was prompted by the recent announcement of the American Broadcasting Co., that it plans, starting next fall, to increase the TV station break time from 30 to 40 seconds. The other networks have indicated they will do the same thing.

Such breaks permit an affiliated station to identify itself and air brief local or regional ads.

Mahonri Sharp Young Speaks to University Women

Mrs. Mahonri Sharp Young, director of the Columbus Art Museum addressed members and guests at the annual Guest Night meeting of the Circleville Branch of the American Association of University Women.

Mr. Young spoke to the group on "The State of Art Today".

He said Art is in a state of liveliness, turmoil and perhaps even crisis. There is no commonly accepted criterion as to what is good and what is bad. "We are free to make up our own minds", he said.

He continued: "In the past art was a soul lifting experience. Today's art brings many different reactions. Many have said that it is a conspiracy of art dealers, but the modern movement is too large and universal to be the responsibility of any small clique."

Mr. Young said, modern art movements started in the early 1900's, but was not as preceptible as today. The Cubist Revolution was the most basic change that came about after 1000 years of representative art.

Picasso probably had more to do with the origin of Cubism than any other one person. Cubist art takes in all angles at which a thing can be seen. The object is considered from all points of view and the finished painting is seen as disjointed sets of facets and angles. There is no attempt to make it pleasing to the viewer, he added.

Another form of modern art is Purism. It is more controlled than Cubism. Purism shows only one point of view. There are not three dimensions as in traditional art. Because of its simplicity it is one of the most influential forms in design and advertising. Thus it has practical justification in everyday application.

The Surrealist painters led by Dali showed more meaning and realism beyond reality to phantasmagoric ends. Dali's "Christ on the Cross" and "The Last Supper" are two of the most popular paintings in art museums.

Mr. Young mentioned several other modern schools and told also of new methods in painting which did away with palettes, tubes, brushes, and easels and simply poured paint directly from a can onto a canvas.

The talk was ended with the famous quotation, "If you can't stand the heat, stay out of the kitchen."

Mr. Young mentioned several from his audience at the close of the talk.

Those present were then served from a tea table and informal discussions continued during the social hour.

Mrs. William Ford, Miss Carolyn Fudge, Ms. Glenn McCoy and Mrs. William Sprague were in charge of arrangements for the evening.

Dear Abby...

By Abigail VanBuren

All Tied Up!

DEAR ABBY: I have been married less than a year to a man who, I think, is a mental case. I never loved him, but he wouldn't leave me alone. He threatened to take his life if I didn't marry him. Besides, I was a divorcee with 3 teen-aged children, and this man could give us a home and security. (He has a lot of money.) He is 58 and I am 33.

Well, he couldn't get along with my children and he got very tight with his money. We fought all the time, and he would yell and storm and break up the furniture. He took rat poison last week—but not enough. The doctor tells me he needs mental treatment. Can I put him away in an institution? If I can prove he wasn't all there when he married me, can I get an annulment? Where will this leave me financially?

DEAR NEEDS: His doctor can tell you whether your husband should be institutionalized. And a lawyer can tell you if you are entitled to an annulment, and also where "this leaves you, financially."

DEAR VIRGINIA: Don't complain, dear. It all averages out. The fathers are stricter with the boys.

DEAR ABBY: I have a buddy who is running around on his wife. They have seven kids and she is just about the sweetest girl I know. I can't bear to see her treated like this. She is only 25, and as pretty as a picture.

She's been giving him a family at the rate of one a year, so she isn't able to go dancing every night. But he goes.

I would give my right arm for a girl like her but she wouldn't look at another man. I am sure she knows he chases home because sometimes he comes home with lipstick all over him. And sometimes he doesn't come home at all. How can I help her?

A BUDDY'S BUDDY

DEAR BUDDY: You can help her by helping your buddy to straighten up.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "GOT IT BAND": There is nothing more hopeless than a single woman who "has it bad" for a married man who never had it so good.

Yes, Abby will answer your letter personally if you write to ABBY, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif., and enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Redlegs Win As Phils Let Roberts Down

Cincinnati Abandons
Cellar as Foe Plates
Its Usual Two Runs

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
After an explosive weekend that produced a no-hitter by Warren Spahn and a four-home run outburst by Willie Mays, baseball fell back into the old routine Monday night—Philadelphia once more gave Robin Roberts just two runs, Robin lost his fourth without a victory and the Phils plunked back into the National League cellar.

Roberts, after a hopeful spring in which he ran up a string of 24 shutout exhibition innings, lost 3-2 at Cincinnati with the winning run unearned. In each of Rob's four defeats, the Phils have scored just two runs.

It was the only game scheduled in the NL and one of but two played in the majors. In the American League, the Minnesota Twins beat the Chicago White Sox 6-5 on a ninth-inning run. The only other game scheduled, New York at Washington, was rained out.

The Reds, jumping back to seventh place with their second in a row after losing eight straight, beat Roberts with a tie-breaking run in the fourth inning. An error by shortstop Ruben Amaro and singles by Leo Carlenas and Don Blasingame did it.

It was the third consecutive hit for Blasingame, the second baseman acquired from San Francisco last week, after going 0-for-12 this season.

Jim O'Toole was the winner for a 2-2 record, blanking the Phils on one hit over the last three innings and finishing with a six' hitter. He struck out nine and walked just two—giving up both passes in the sixth inning. A double play got him out of the jam.

Roberts, suffering his second straight defeat by an unearned run, allowed 10 hits, walked one and struck out five in his seven inning tie for the Twins against reliever Turk Lown (0-2) of the White Sox. Ray Moore (2-1) was the winner with one perfect inning of relief. Harmon Killebrew homered for the Twins' first two runs, off starter Frank Baumann. The Sox counted their first three off Chuck Stobbs on homers by Jim Landis, Al Smith and Camilo Carreon.

Carp Derby Open To Area Archers

Local archery enthusiasts have been invited to participate in a carp derby at East Harbor State Park Sunday, sponsored by the Clubs.

First prize in the carp competition is an expense - paid one-week vacation for two persons at Timberlane Lodge in northern Wisconsin.

Pre - registration entries may be mailed to Box 481, Fremont. The tournament will start at 8 a. m. and run until 1 p. m.

A trophy will be awarded to the archer, man or woman, who shoots the largest carp.

East Harbor State Park is located on Route 163, 10 miles east of Port Clinton on the shore of Lake Erie.

High Squad Listed In Couples League

The Pickleseimer - Strawser squad won high team singles and series honors on scores of 597 and 2,133 in the latest Mixed Couples summer league bowling at Prairie Lanes.

The top individual singles mark was registered by Ken Good with 204, while Betty Seymour headed ladies' scores with 169.

Bob Loy copped high individual three - game awards with 541.

Moore, Johnson Share Monthly Boxer Honor

PROVIDENCE, R.I. (AP) — Champion Davey Moore and Harold Johnson today share the National Boxing Association's boxer-of-the-month honors.

Chairman Tony Petronella of the NBA Ratings Committee named the pair for special citation while announcing the April rankings.

Moore, featherweight king from Springfield, Ohio, was honored for his one-round knockout of Danny Lader of Los Angeles. Light heavyweight champ Johnson was named for his second round kayo of Von Clay of Philadelphia.

Interested Persons Attend Athletic Improvement Meet

Approximately 45 persons attended a meeting here last night to discuss possibilities of improving athletic facilities at Circleville High School.

A special Booster Club committee called the meeting. Many local business and professional men attended to hear and discuss proposals for improvement.

Charles Hart, a Booster officer, served as temporary chairman.

Hart pointed out that the Booster Committee currently leans toward possible construction of a new football stadium and field, track and baseball diamond at the Nicholas Drive area where land has been purchased by the local

Tourney Play Scheduled for County Teams

Ashville will place its unblemished 1961 baseball record on the line tomorrow night when it goes after its eighth win without defeat in the opening round of Central District class A tournament play on its home diamond.

The team out to break Ashville's victory string is the Plains of Mt. Sterling. Plains holds a 5-1 won-lost mark and is reported to be a tight defensive club with solid pitching and a sometimes-explosive attack.

Ashville's Broncos, winners of this year's Pickaway County tournament, have been noted for their sure glove work and potent batting.

The contest is scheduled to start at 4 p. m.

IN OTHER drawings made Monday night in Columbus, Logan Elm (7-2) was paired with Licking Heights (3-2) for a game Wednesday on the Pickaway field.

Walnut, the other county league team entered in the playoffs, will try to add another win to its 4-2 record in a contest with Pleasant (3-0) on that Marion County school's home field.

Semifinals in district competition will be held May 9 on various school diamonds, and the finals have been set May 13 at Newark's 'Y' Park.

Russ Gregg, Ashville coach, emphasized that the Pickaway teams will face particularly difficult opposition in the early part of the tourney, since defending state champion Liberty Union has been included in the sam playing bracket with the local squads.

Lady Keglers Set Business Session

Officers and members of the Women's Summer Bowling League will meet 7 p. m. Wednesday at Prairie Lanes for a regular business session.

Scheduled league bowling will be held as soon as the meeting is adjourned.

Board of Education for a new elementary school.

WILLIAM Cook, Pickaway County Agriculture Society secretary, attended the meeting. He offered the local Fairgrounds as a possible site.

Cook said the grandstand at the harness track could be used as a stadium. Hart and the Booster committee said the Fairgrounds plan will be given consideration.

The assembled group also heard reports on surveys made at other schools where athletic facilities improvement projects have been completed or started. The reports concerned Pleasant View, Washington C. H. and Berne Union High Schools.

Hart reminded the group that a definite plan of action is needed before the project can move forward.

Ralph Starkey, Booster president, requested all interested persons to join with the club in an effort to come up with suggestions and possible plans.

The Booster committee agreed to call another meeting for 8 p. m. Monday at the home of Coach Carl K. Benhase, Route 3.

Tom Stith Felled By Tuberculosis

OLEAN, N. Y. (AP)—All-America Tom Stith, whose scoring feats helped make little St. Bonaventure a major basketball power, has been stricken with tuberculosis. His doctor says at the earliest it will be more than a year before he plays again.

Doctors at St. Francis Hospital said Monday that Stith had the disease in one lung. He lost almost 20 pounds last season and entered the hospital for a check-up Friday when he failed to regain the weight.

Stith signed three weeks ago with the New York Knickerbockers of the National Basketball Association. He was the Knicks' first draft choice.

Rookie Drivers Take Tests for 500

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — Parnelli Jones of Torrance, Calif., a highly regarded racing prospect was ready to finish his rookie driver test at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway today.

Car owner J.C. Agajanian of San Pedro, Calif., said he first thought of Jones as a speedway driver 10 years ago when Jones, then 18, was driving in a televised jalopy race in the rain.

Jones now is Midwest sprint champion, but every newcomer at the big track, no matter what his experience, must take the test before he can try to qualify a car for the 500-mile race.

Bob Wente of St. Louis and Leon Clum of Wapakoneta, Ohio, also were working on their driver tests.

Tigers Strike Tourney Trail

South Tilt Today On Lewis Diamond

Circleville's baseball Tigers, primed by several days of practice in warm sunshine, will move into Central District AA tournament competition tonight, with an assurance from coach Dick Fisher that "we're going into this game with the idea of winning."

Fisher, commenting on Columbus South, the Tiger's first tourney foe, added "We don't know a great deal about them — who their big men are or how they play — but our boys are going to treat this game just as they would any other. We're going to play it the best we possibly can."

Handling the hurling chores for the Tigers will be ace Sam Weller. In his last outing against Pleasant View, Weller yielded only five hits and struck out eight men, but lost the 8-inning tilt 4-3 on five Tiger errors.

Others expected to be in the starting lineup for Circleville are Cook (c) Kline (1b), Bass (2b), Callahan (3b), Wellington (ss), Moore (lf), Tootle (cf), and Lagore (rf).

The Tigers will have the home field advantage working for them today, as the tilt has been scheduled for Ted Lewis Park at 4 p. m.

Won-lost records for both squads are deceiving, since the Tigers have suffered several bad breaks in compiling their 2-4 tally and South by all indications is stronger than their 1-3 City League mark would show.

The winner of today's contest will travel to Westerville Thursday for the second round of play-offs.

Westerville, which drew a bye in first round pairings, holds an impressive 7-2 won-lost count.

Piersall Gets Flu; Tribe Awaits Chisox

CLEVELAND (AP)—Jim Piersall is a doubtful starter for Cleveland tonight in the Indians' first home night game of the season, against the Chicago White Sox.

Suffering the flu, he spent Monday in bed.

Piersall complained of a sore throat before Sunday's double-header with the Boston Red Sox, but he made three hits and increased his average to .299. After the games he felt worse and called a doctor. His temperature was 103.

If Piersall is sidelined, his place will be taken by Walter Bond.

Kent State Placekicker Signs Canada Pro Pact

TORONTO (AP) — Bob Gusbar, a 21-year-old end and placekicker from Kent State, today signed a pro contract with Toronto of the Canadian Big Four Football League. Gusbar, 6-2, 200 pounds led the Mid-American Conference in scoring last season and caught 25 passes for 301 yards and seven touchdowns.

Jensen Says Reflexes Gone, But He Still May Rejoin Sox

OGDEN, Utah (AP)—Outfielder Jackie Jensen of the Boston Red Sox, apparently discouraged by an anemic batting average, says he is quitting baseball for good.

But his wife, former Olympic diving champion Zoe Ann Olsen, said she will try to talk him into rejoining the team.

Jensen, who left the team in Cleveland Saturday, confirmed Monday night that he was retiring again.

"I've had it," Jensen told sportswriter Ensign Ritchie of the Ogden Standard-Examiner. "I know when my reflexes are gone and I'm not going to be any 25th man on the ball club."

Ritchie interviewed Jensen when his train stopped here en route to Reno. It was the first direct word from Jensen on his walkout.

He made no announcement then, merely leaving word with a teammate that he would contact Red Sox Manager Mike Higgins at Kansas City.

Higgins said he was waiting to hear from Jensen, but added: "I don't think Jackie will ever play again."

The outfielder, whose estimated 1961 salary is $50,000, retired after the 1959 season.

In his comeback attempt this year, he has fared poorly. In 12 games and 46 times at bat, Jensen hit safely only six times for a .130 batting average and one RBI.

This is in sharp contrast to his .281 average for 10 previous seasons in the American League. In 1958, when Jensen was the league's most valuable player, he batted .286, drove in 122 runs and hit 35 home runs.

At their home in Crystal Bay, Nev., his wife said Jensen was sensitive about his performance.

"When he is living by himself on the road, he starts moaning and groaning," Mrs. Jensen said.

She said she would try to persuade him to return to the Boston club.

"There isn't any reason for this. He's had slumps before," she said.

Women Golfers Set Thursday Meeting

Members of the Women's Golf Association will hold a general meeting Thursday at 11:15 a. m. at the Pickaway Country Club. Plans will be discussed for the approaching golfing season.

THE CHASE—Gordon Coleman of the Reds appears to be racing the ball (arrow at back pocket) in this photo taken during game with Cubs in Chicago. He didn't beat the throw, however.

In Memoriam

In loving memory of my beloved husband, Edward W. Strawser, who passed away one year ago yesterday, May 1st.

His smiling face and pleasant face, Are a pleasure to recall; He had a kindly word for each, And died beloved by all. Someday we hope to meet him, Someday we hope to meet him, To clasp his hand in the better land, Never to part again. Sadly missed by wife and children.

America's First Spaceman Always Seeking Challenge

'DRY RUN' BEFORE SPACE TRIP — On the eve of the first U.S. attempt to send a man into space, astronaut Alan Shepard, wearing his space suit, enters the gantry elevator at Cape Canaveral, Fla., with a group of technicians. They were on their way to the third level where a Mercury capsule was being given a flight simulation test run. The capsule was prepared for launching from a Redstone booster. Also ready for the suborbital flight was astronaut John Glenn, who heads for a launching pad in his space suit to make a last test of the capsule to be used.

District Deputy Attends Philos Lodge Meeting

Gary R. and Raymond C. Winer, Circleville brothers, attained the rank of Knights during initiation ceremonies last night at Philos Lodge No. 64, Knights of Pythias.

District Deputy Grand Chancellor Alton King of Westerville was present and inspected the lodge during an official visit. He gave the lodge a rating of very good.

Loren Beck, also of Westerville, accompanied King.

A lunch of steak and mushrooms was served following the meeting by a committee composed of Glen Justice, Russell Adams and Lloyd Fisher.

AN official visit by Grand Prelate Thomas E. Mills will feature the meeting next Monday. Mills will bring a recording of the Supreme Chancellor's address, which is being presented to lodges in this area if they so desire.

The meeting will get under way at 8 p. m.

Exceptional Child Trustees To Meet

Trustees of the Pickaway County Exceptional (retarded) Children's Council will meet at 7:45 p. m. Thursday in the Probate Courtroom at the Courthouse.

Business will include plans for the concession booth the group plans to sponsor during the Circleville Riding Club's Horseshow May 14 at the local Fairgrounds.

American to ride a rocket into challenges.

Asked recently why he volunteered for the hazardous mission, the Navy commander said: "The flight is obviously a challenge and I feel that the more severe challenge will occur on the first flight. I signed up to accept this challenge."

His wife, Louise, one said that if Alan couldn't find a challenge, he would create one.

He became impatient while taking Navy flight training and went to a civilian flight school in his spare time to get his private license.

He loves water-skiing. First he used two skis, then one. Later he started hunting for a boat that would pull him fast enough to ski on his bare feet.

Shepard finds challenges where other men might find only chores.

In his wife's words, "He is always reading technical manuals and the big policy-type journals the kind the admirals and gener-

Recession Is Over In Cleveland, Claim

CLEVELAND (AP)—Cleveland's recession is over, according to Ward A. Riley, head of the Ohio State Employment Service and the Bureau of Unemployment Compensation in this area.

Riley said Monday the latest figures showed: (1) A drop in new BUC claims; (2) a drop in continuing claims; (3) a decrease in total unemployment; and (4) fewer filings for extended claims.

"We reached our peak and we can expect a decrease in unemployment and a pickup in employment," Riley said.

Initial BUC claims dropped 1-972 to 3,401 last week, the least since Oct. 15, he said. New claims have run under 4,000 a week in four of the last six weeks reported.

Business Briefs

Motorists can buy airline type seatbelts for their cars on a non-profit basis from Wes Edstrom Motors, 150 E. Main St.

Dealer Edstrom put into effect Chrysler Corporation's recently-announced national program to encourage and make it as easy as possible financially for the average motorist to install seatbelts in a car for greater driver and passenger protection.

The front or rear seats, or both, may be equipped with belts.

In announcing this safety program, Chrysler President L. L. Colbert said that seatbelts are becoming the most important piece of safety equipment now available to motorists. He cited a joint study and analysis by the California Highway Patrol and the Cornell Automotive Crash Injury Research group on tens of thousands of actual highway accidents which found that seatbelt users sustained about 35 percent fewer major injuries than those not using seatbelts.

W. E. Clark, 214 Cedar Heights Road, is now associated with the Curtis W. Hix Realty firm.

Mrs. Loring Valentine, 410 E. Mound St., and Mrs. Ann Richards, Ashville, will attend the Open House meeting of the Columbus Chapter Hairdressers Guild of Ohio in the Neil House at 8 p. m. today.

The show will be presented by Ozon's Top Colorist, Herbert Harris, New York City. Styling by one of Ohio's own Styling Champions, Miss Betty Eads, will also be a feature of the evenings entertainment. Refreshments will be served.

Mrs. Ruth Iery, assistant to Mrs. Valentine, is making plans to attend an advanced Hair Styling school in the near future. Due to a virus infection, Mrs. Iery will be unable to attend the Guild meeting this month.

Cincy Dem Fuss Shunned by Court

CINCINNATI (AP) — The 1st District State Appeals Court has backed up a lower court ruling that threw out a civil suit charging Hamilton County Democratic leaders with taking kickbacks.

The appeals court Monday upheld Judge Carson Hoy of Common Pleas Court who ruled the courts could not interfere in internal affairs of a political organization.

Martin J. Hogan, former assistant Cincinnati postmaster, filed the suit containing kickbacks from sales tax stamp sales amounted to $20,000 but had not been accounted for by Democratic leaders.

Defendants included John A. Wiethe, Hamilton County Democratic chairman, who countered with a $250,000 suit against Hogan charging libel and slander. The suit is pending.

Many County Records Due For Disposal or Storage

The Pickaway County Records Commission has received applications from the various county department heads for the disposal or storage of hundreds of obsolete public records.

The legal advertisements that began yesterday in The Herald lists all records that the department heads state are of no further administrative, legal or fiscal value to the agency.

Some of the records listed will be destroyed and others will be stored in the courthouse for future reference and possibly microfilming. At the present time, the county does not have the equipment to microfilm the records.

Auditor Marvin Rhoades' application for the disposal of records total 243. The County Soldiers' and Sailors' Relief Commission has listed all relief orders to eligible veterans from February 1948 through December 1958. The Pickaway County Clerk of Courts office also has listed numerous obsolete records for disposal or storage.

THE Board of County Commissioners has listed 56 items for storage or disposal and the County Recorder's office has submitted an application for the storage or disposal of numerous records.

A records official from the Ohio State Historical Society has been working with the local Records Commission in methods of disposal and reviewing the files that will be stored for future reference.

British Girl Picked As Hussein's Bride

AMMAN, Jordan (AP) — King Hussein has announced the 20-year-old daughter of a British army colonel on his staff will be second wife.

A national holiday was proclaimed today in the Hashimite kingdom in honor of the monarch's engagement to the English girl who has become a Moslem and has taken the name of Mona el Hussein.

The romance was a closely guarded secret until Hussein, 25, announced his engagement in a broadcast to the nation Monday night. Her father, Col. W. P. Gardiner, is a technical expert with the Royal Jordanian Engineers.

Hairdressers Hold Dinner Meeting

The Pickaway County Hairdressers held a dinner meeting recently at Tink's Tavern. Mrs. Robert Barnes served as hostess.

Mary Pierce, president of the Columbus Chapter of the Hairdressers' Guild of Ohio, was the guest speaker for the dinner meeting.

Those attending were Bessie Sludaker, Elva Faye Chaney, Ruth Quinzel, Graciele Kuhn, Eloise Ford, Louise Schelegler, Ruth Frazier, Marjorie Russell, Ruth Wells, Norma Jean McClelland, Dorothy Ferguson and June Barnes.

GOP Dinner Slated May 10

The Central and Southern Ohio Republican Finance Dinner will be held May 10, in the Youth Center on the Ohio State Fairgrounds.

Richard M. Nixon, former vice president, will be the main speaker for the occasion.

Ticket sales chairman Don McAllen reported that proceeds will be used for the Republican Party campaign fund.

Dr. G. D. Phillips, 624 Beverly Road, is in charge of ticket sales in Pickaway County. Local persons interested in attending the dinner may contact Dr. Phillips.

Phony Tip about Death Brings Sentence, Fine

CINCINNATI (AP) — Richard Laswell of Cincinnati faces 30 days in jail and a $200 fine for giving police a phony tip in the death of a patrolman. Judge Gilbert Bettman set the sentence in Municipal Court Monday for Laswell, 32, on a charge of giving a false report. Laswell, arrested on a drunken driving charge March 12 said he was drunk and under influence of tranquilizers when he gave the false tip about the death March 11 of Patrolman Donald Martin.

How can a lady get out of a compact...gracefully?

DID YOU KNOW—the all-purpose Rambler Classic, America's only middle-sized car, has no climb-over ledge that makes other cars hard to enter or leave? • That the X-Ray Books prove this and more in side-by-side illustrated comparisons?

"Rambler Classic is the man-sized compact that likes ladies"

Get Rambler Excellence

No other car is built like, saves like, lasts like the Classic
with Rambler Excellence

• MOST HEADROOM, 30% QUIETER with cushioned acoustical ceiling of molded fiber glass.
• EASIER PARKING, HANDLING—turns shorter than even the small compacts.
• SURPRISE PRICE—a far finer wagon, priced just slightly above small compact wagons. Based on a comparison of manufacturers' suggested prices.
